3.1 Voting and Honorary Members. The Corporation shall have two (2) classes of members: voting and honorary members.

a. Voting members shall be those persons who have given generously of their resources (financial or non-financial), talents, time and labor in the spirit of commitment to the Corporation and its goals, purposes and programs. Only voting members shall have a right to vote on matters affecting the Corporation including, but not limited to, the election of directors.

Voting members shall be permitted at any special or regular meeting by a majority vote, once a quorum of at least one-third (1/3) of voting members is established, to remove any director with or without cause, effective immediately, and at the same or another meeting, by majority vote, to elect his or her successor to complete the unexpired term. There is no requirement that he or she be given an opportunity to be heard or represented at such meeting.

Any voting member who receives such instruction may appeal it to the voting members at any annual or special meeting. Such instruction may be countermanded and revoked by the majority vote of the voting members.

Should all voting members be deceased or should all voting members have resigned, additional voting members may be nominated by the Board of Directors and elected at any annual or special meeting of the Board of Directors.

3.5 Election of Chairman. At the annual meeting of the voting members, or at a special meeting of the voting members held prior to the first annual meeting of the voting

(d) The Board of Directors may, from time to time, appoint as advisors persons whose advice, assistance and support may be deemed helpful in determining policies and formulating programs for carrying out the purposes and functions of the Corporation.

(e) The Board of Directors is authorized to employ such person or persons, including an executive director, attorneys, directors, agents, and assistants, as in its judgment are necessary or desirable for the administration and management of the Corporation, and to pay reasonable compensation for the services performed and expenses incurred by any such person or persons.

4.5 Removal. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time during his or her term at any regular, special or annual meeting of the voting members, by majority vote of the voting members, if notice of intention to act upon such matter shall have been given in the notice calling such meeting. A removed director's successor may be elected at the same meeting to serve the unexpired term.

4.6 Resignation. Any director may resign by providing written notice to the Board of Directors, the President or the Secretary of the Corporation. Such written notice shall contain the effective date of the director's resignation or shall be deemed effective upon actual receipt.

4.7 Vacancies. Except as limited by Section 4.5, any vacancy on the Board of Directors arising at any time and from any cause, including the authorization of an increase in the number of Directors, may be filled for the unexpired term at any meeting of the voting members by a majority vote of the voting members. Each director so elected shall hold office until the election at the next annual meeting of the voting members and the qualification of his or her successor.

4.9 Compensation. No director of the Corporation shall receive, directly or indirectly, any salary, compensation, or emolument but may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with attending meetings of the Board of Directors. Persons who serve as directors and who also serve as officers or otherwise perform services on behalf of the Corporation may receive reasonable compensation for services rendered in capacities other than as directors.

ARTICLE FIVE

Meetings of the Board of Directors; Meetings of the Voting Members

5.1 Place of Meeting. Meetings may be held at any place within or without the District of Columbia, as set forth in the notice thereof or in the event of a meeting held pursuant to waiver of notice, as may be set forth in the waiver, or if no place is so specified, at the principal office of the Corporation. Meetings of the Board of Directors and meetings of the voting members may be, but need not be, held on the same date and at the same place. As used in this Article Five, “meetings” refers to both forms of meetings.

5.2 Annual Meeting; Notice. The annual meeting shall be held at the principal office of the Corporation or at such other place as shall be designated in the notice of meeting. Unless waived as contemplated in Sections 5.5 or 6.2 of these bylaws, notice of the time and place of such annual meeting shall be given by the Secretary of the Corporation, if it is a board meeting, or the Chairman of the voting members, if it is a member meeting, either personally, by telephone, by mail, by facsimile transmission, or by electronic mail no less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before such meeting.

5.3 Regular Meeting; Notice. Regular meetings may be held from time to time between annual meetings at such times and at such places as the Board of Directors and voting members may prescribe. Notice of the time and place of each such regular meeting shall be given by the Secretary of the Corporation or Chairman of the voting members (as the case may be) either personally, by telephone, by mail, by facsimile transmission, or by electronic mail not less than seven (7) nor more than thirty (30) days before such regular meeting.

5.4 Special Meetings; Notices. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the President or by any two of the Directors in office at that time. Notice of the time, place and purpose of any special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given by the Secretary either personally, by telephone, by mail, by facsimile transmission, or by electronic mail at least twenty-four (24) hours before such meeting.

Special meetings of the voting members may be called by the Chairman of the voting members or any two voting members. Notice of the meeting shall be provided as set forth in the preceding paragraph, mutatis mutandis.

5.5 Waiver. Attendance by a director or voting member at a meeting shall constitute waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director or voting member attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called.

5.6 Quorum. At meetings, a majority of the directors then in office or voting members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; provided, however, that the provisions in the Sixth and Twelfth articles of the articles of incorporation shall be controlling as to the matters stated in such articles.

5.7 Vote Required for Action. Except as otherwise provided in these bylaws or by the articles of incorporation, the act of a majority of the directors or voting members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present at the time shall be effective for all purposes.

5.8 Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by all directors or voting members (as the case may be.) Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote at a meeting duly called. The signed consent, or a signed copy, shall be placed in the minute book.

5.9 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Directors or voting members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at the meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

5.10 Adjournments. A meeting, whether or not a quorum is present, may be adjourned by a majority of the persons attending to reconvene at a specific time and place. It shall not be necessary to give notice of the reconvened meeting or of the business to be transacted, other than by announcement at the meeting which was adjourned. At any such reconvened meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted which could have been transacted at the meeting which was adjourned.

ARTICLE SIX

Notice and Waiver

6.1 Procedure. Whenever these bylaws require notice to be given to any director or voting member, the notice shall be given as prescribed in Article Five. Whenever notice is given by mail, the notice shall be sent by first-class mail by depositing the same in a post office or letter box in a postage prepaid sealed envelope addressed to the person at his or her address as it appears on the books of the Corporation; and such notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time the same is deposited in the United States mail.

6.2 Waiver. Whenever any notice is required to be given to any director or voting member by law, the articles of incorporation, or by these bylaws, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person entitled to such notice, whether before or after the meeting to which the waiver pertains, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

(d) The Treasurer shall perform all duties incident to the office of Treasurer and shall perform such other duties and have such other authority and powers as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe or as the President may from time to time delegate.

ARTICLE NINE

Indemnification and Insurance

9.1 Indemnification. If any person who was or is a party to or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, seeks indemnification from the Corporation against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and expenses, including attorneys' fees, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee, agent or voting member of the Corporation, then the Corporation shall determine in the manner provided under District of Columbia law whether or not indemnification is proper under the circumstances. If it is determined that such indemnification shall be provided, such person may be indemnified to the fullest extent now or hereafter permitted by District of Columbia law.

9.2 Indemnification Not Exclusive of Other Rights. The indemnification provided in Section 9.1 above shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under the articles of incorporation or bylaws, or any agreement, vote of disinterested directors, or otherwise as to action taken in an official capacity while holding such office. Such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, agent or voting member, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

If the Directors determine that a conflict of interest exists, they shall follow procedures addressing such conflict of interest pursuant to written Conflict of Interest and Compensation Guidelines adopted to avoid “excess benefit transactions” subject to intermediate sanctions and excise taxes under Section 4958 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations thereunder.
